XIX World Festival of Youth and Students

#wfys2017

Goals

› Consolidation of the international youth community around the idea of peace, friendship and justice

› Strengthening international ties

› Development of international and intercultural cooperation

› Increasing interest in Russia

Targets

› Creating a network of friendly foreign youth nonprofit organizations worldwide

› Creating a network of professional youth communities worldwide

› Re-establishment of the International Union of Students

› Acceptance of an appeal of youth to the world community

«I would really like to see this time how Russia shows its' best qualities, achievements, aspirations for the future and a desire to work on a new level, in a new capacity, it would help, would make a noticeable, significant contribution to the development of youth movement»

Vladimir Putin
Russian President

«Freedom of expression or peaceful assembly should not be used as cover for condoning radical movements that profess the Nazi ideology, or seek to glorify fascists and their accomplices. The persistence of these vicious instincts calls for consistent efforts to block the way for neo-Nazism and revanchism, strengthen interethnic and intercultural harmony, and fortify in younger generations the ideas of justice and equality. Russia invites all of you to take part in the 19th World Festival of Youth and Students to be held in Sochi in October 2017»

Sergey Lavrov

Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs at the 71st session of the UN General Assembly

«The World Festival of Youth and students 2017 will be an excellent platform for uniting young people from around the globe!»

Ahmad Al Hindawi

The UN Secretary-General Envoy for Youth

Supported by the UN
